Angular Frontend Developer – Digital Solution Plan	December 2023 – Present
--	-------------------------

Technology Used: Angular 19, TypeScript, RxJS, Angular Material, SCSS, Module Federation, AG-Grid, Git

- Reduced code complexity and improved maintainability by moving enterprise applications to Angular 19 standalone components.
- Played a major role in building microfrontend applications using Module Federation, helping teams deploy independently and improving overall scalability.
- Improved handling of async data by implementing RxJS workflows using operators like switchMap, mergeMap, and catchError.
- Built advanced AG-Grid tables to manage large datasets, including sorting, filtering, pagination, and custom cell rendering.
- Improved page load performance through lazy loading, route-level code splitting, and better module configuration.
- Strengthened navigation security and structure by implementing route guards (CanActivate, CanDeactivate) in Angular Router.
- Maintained code quality and improved delivery speed through consistent Git branching strategies and code reviews.
- Contributed to modernizing state management by adopting Angular Signals (signal(), computed(), effect()) for reactive component updates.
